Evans joins the Porsche squad as a newcomer for the 2019 season. The young New Zealander began his career in karting with convincing performances. He then advanced into the Porsche GT3 Cup Challenge Australia, where he notched up second overall twice. The talented youngster contested the Porsche Carrera Cup Australia for the first time in 2017. Scoring fifth place at his debut season, he had reason to celebrate in 2018: Evans won the Porsche Michelin Junior Programme Australia and secured the title in the Australian Carrera Cup. For 2019, he now climbs the career ladder to drive the Porsche 911 GT3 Cup in the Porsche Mobil 1 Supercup, for which he receives funding from Porsche totalling 225,000 Euro.
