Porsche Centre Jordan showcases a Macan 4 by Porsche Exclusive Manufaktur

10/08/2026 Porsche Centre Jordan presents a uniquely configured Macan 4, demonstrating how Porsche Exclusive Manufaktur transforms individuality into craftsmanship. Finished in Aventurine Green Metallic and complemented by a wide range of bespoke options, this all-electric SUV embodies the perfect balance of sporting character, everyday versatility and uncompromising luxury. Whether navigating the rhythm of the city or setting out on longer journeys across Jordan, the Macan 4 adapts to every occasion, delivering the driving experience of a Porsche while serving as the ideal companion for everyday life.

Jordan | Every detail of this Macan 4 has been carefully selected to create a distinctive visual presence. The Aventurine Green Metallic finish is paired with 22-inch Macan Exclusive Design wheels painted in high-gloss Black, creating a confident yet sophisticated stance.

Further exterior details include the SportDesign Package, sideblades in the exterior colour, black aluminium roof rails and the model designation with the 'electric' logo in high-gloss Black. Tinted Matrix LED Main Headlights, Tinted LED Taillights with the continuous light strip and illuminated PORSCHE LED door courtesy lights complete the exterior specification.

An interior crafted around individuality

Inside, the Black/Night Green Leather Package complements the Aventurine Green Metallic exterior, while a range of Porsche Exclusive Manufaktur details further individualise the cabin.

The Adaptive Sports Seats (18-way, electric) provide comfort and support, with illuminated PORSCHE logos in the front seats and embossed Porsche Crests on the headrests adding distinctive details. The heated GT Sports steering wheel with carbon inlay complements the interior specification.

Further comfort and convenience features include the Burmester® High-End Surround Sound System, Passenger Display, and a range of assistance technologies.

Electrifying performance with unmistakable Porsche DNA

The Macan 4 combines Porsche driving dynamics with the responsiveness of an all-electric powertrain. The Sport Chrono Package with Porsche Design Subsecond Clock and Porsche Electric Sport Sound further complement the driving experience.

Park Assist including 3D Surround View, Porsche Entry and Lane Change Assist provide additional convenience and support for everyday driving.

Porsche Exclusive Manufaktur: crafted around the individual

Porsche Exclusive Manufaktur offers customers a wide range of options to personalise their vehicle through selected materials, finishes and design details, while retaining the distinctive character of a Porsche.

This Macan 4 demonstrates the range of individualisation available, with a combination of exterior and interior options selected to create a highly personalised specification.

Now on display at Porsche Centre Jordan, the Macan 4 showcases the range of personalisation possibilities offered by Porsche Exclusive Manufaktur. Its carefully selected exterior and interior details demonstrate how individual choices can give each Porsche its own distinctive character.

The model combines these individualisation options with the performance and everyday usability of the all-electric Macan, creating a specification tailored to its owner.
