

Better by the dozen: Car and Driver announces Editors' Choice awards for 12 Porsche models

03/02/2026 Every current Porsche model line scores 9.0 or better in magazine's ratings.

Porsche Cars North America is thrilled to announce that no fewer than 12 model derivatives have secured the prestigious Editors' Choice Award from Car and Driver. Examples from every currently-produced model line – the 911, Cayenne, Panamera, Macan and Taycan – measured up to the staff's strict standards to earn top ranks.

"From sports cars to electric SUVs, Porsche's 12 Editors' Choice awards recognize the performance and driver-centric joy throughout the brand's lineup," Editor-In-Chief Tony Quiroga said.

"Car and Driver Editors' Choice Awards are special," said Timo Resch, President and CEO of Porsche Cars North America. "The testing team drives almost every new car from every manufacturer each year, and they subject cars to rigorous benchmarking. That has always been a natural match to our approach in engineering exceptional cars, so their nod of approval is a huge compliment."
